

CHARTER OF CUSTOMER RIGHTS

YES BANK has always been dedicated to provide Consistent & Superior Service Experience since 2003. With a view to promote fair banking practices please find below the Charter of Customer Rights as incorporated by YES BANK. This charter details the key information pertaining to the overarching principles for protection of customers of YES BANK and enunciates their five basic rights on the usage of various services/facilities offered by YES BANK.

Application of the Charter

The Policy applies to all products and services offered by YES BANK or its agents, whether provided across the counter, over phone, by post, through interactive electronic devices, on internet or by any other method.

The Customer Rights Policy enshrines basic rights of the customers of YES BANK regulated by the Reserve Bank of India. It spells out the rights of the customer and also the responsibilities of the bank.

Right to Fair Treatment:

YES BANK shall treat both the customer and the Bank with courtesy. The customer shall not be unfairly, discriminated against on grounds such as gender, age, religion, caste and physical ability when offering and delivering financial products.

In pursuance of the above Right, YES BANK will -

- Promote good and fair banking practices by setting minimum standards in all dealings with the customers;
- Promote a fair and equitable relationship between the bank and the customer;
- Train bank staff attending to the customers, adequately and appropriately;
- Ensure that staff members attend to customers and their business promptly and courteously;
- Treat all customers fairly and not discriminate against any customer on grounds such as gender, age, religion, caste, literacy, economic status physical ability, etc.

YES BANK may, however, have special schemes or products which are specifically designed for members of a target market group or may use defensible, commercially acceptable economic rationale for customer differentiation. YES BANK may also have schemes or products as part of an affirmative action such as for women or backward classes. Such schemes / products will not tantamount to unfair discrimination. The rationale for such special schemes or terms will be explained by YES BANK wherever required;

- Ensure that the above principle is applied while offering all products and services;
- Ensure that the products and services offered are in accordance with relevant laws and regulations

While it shall be the endeavor of the bank to provide their customers with hassle free and fair treatment, YES BANK would expect their customers to behave courteously and honestly in their dealings with the bank.

It shall also be YES BANK's endeavor to encourage their customers to approach the bank's internal grievance redressal machinery and approach alternate fora after exhausting all their remedies under bank's internal grievance mechanism.

Right to Transparency, Fair and Honest Dealing:

YES BANK will make every effort to ensure that the contracts or agreements it frames are transparent, easily understood by and well communicated to, the common person. The product's price, the associated risks, the terms and conditions that govern use over the product's life cycle and the responsibilities of the customer and YES BANK, will be clearly disclosed. The customer will not be subject to unfair business or marketing practices, coercive contractual terms or misleading representations. Over the course of the customer's relationship, will not threaten the customer with physical harm, exert undue influence, or engage in blatant harassment.

In pursuance of the above Right, YES BANK will -

- Ensure complete transparency so that the customer can have a better understanding of what he or she can reasonably / fairly expect from the bank;
- Ensure that the bank's dealings with the customer rest on ethical principles of equity, integrity and transparency;
- Provide customers with clear information about its products and services, terms and conditions, and the interest rates/service charges in simple and easily understandable language, and with sufficient information so that the customer could be reasonably expected to make an appropriate and informed choice of product;
- Ensure that all terms and conditions are fair and set out the respective rights, liabilities and obligations clearly and as far as possible in plain and simple language;
- Make known the key risks associated with the product as well as any features that may especially disadvantage the customer to him/her. Most Important Terms and Conditions (MITC) associated with the product or service will be clearly brought to the notice of the customer while offering the product. In general, it will be ensured that such terms will not inhibit a customer's future choice.
- Provide information on interest rates, fees and charges either on the Notice Board in the branches or website or through help-lines or help-desk and where appropriate the customer will be informed directly;
- Display the tariff Schedule on their website and a copy of it will be made available at every branch for customer's perusal. Also will display in its branches a notice about the availability of the Tariff Schedule at the branch;
